

Able support to differently-abled

The three-day Annual International Shafallah Forum in Doha has provided experts and dignitaries from all walks of life an ideal platform to share their views on autism and disability. The event is set to generate public awareness on problems related to physically challenged.

(Photographs by Hassan K. Joseph)

